COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

ESSEX SS.

of the convention" to which we refer, and which embodies the attack upon Mr Van Buren, proposes separate tickets for the support of this party of professed anti-monopolists. Even if they shall conclude to give their votes for one or more of the republican candidates for President, Vice President, or Governor, they avow their determination to assume a hostile attitude towards all others. In any view of the matter, pastor present, we certainly see nothing in this party, its views, designs, or professed opinions, or in the moral, personal, or political character of the persons composing it, which renders it an object to be courted or cultivated, at the sacrifice of one particle of political faith, or the slightest departure from the customary course of the democratic party—undivided support to its regularly nominated candidates, and distinct opposition to those who seek to break through its usages and defeat its tickets.—Albany Argus.

The President.—The citizens of Nashville are making preparations to receive their illustrious fellow citizen, Gen. JACKSON, in a brilliant and enthusiastic manner. An immense public meeting was held there on the 23d ult., the Hon. GEORGE W. CAMPBELL in the chair, at which the following, among other Resolutions, were passed:—

Resolved, That a committee of one hundred gentlemen be appointed on behalf of the citizens of Davidson county, to meet the President of the United States at some convenient point on his way to the Hermitage, to welcome him home, and tender him such public hospitalities as he may be pleased to accept.

Resolved, That the said Committee be instructed to appoint a sub-Committee, with authority to make all suitable arrangements for carrying the objects of the foregoing resolutions into effect.

Secretly discovered.—The Galaxy, in a short editorial paragraph, says—"The secret of Washington Irving's popularity as a writer may be traced to a union between nature and education"!—It is astonishing that no one ever thought of this before. It is equally surprising that the editor had not kept this "secret" to himself for his own exclusive use and benefit. But with a noble generosity, he freely discloses it to his brother editors, while he disdains, at the same time, to take any advantage of the discovery himself. He will certainly find out the longitude next, and then the squaring of the circle, and then perpetual motion. This is a wonderful age.

He—The small office-trafficking lawyer, who holds on to the Worcester County Republican, takes the same ground as the Worcester Palladium, a ci-devant Federal and present Whig paper, in abusing Mr Henshaw's address, and is using its efforts, in conjunction with the Palladium, to injure Judge Morton. After denouncing the recent Fourth of July celebrations of the Democratic party in this State, and after coming out in justification of a gag-law more infamous, odious and unconstitutional than that of the Federal party in John Adams' day, we have little to hope from this monopoly lawyer except the most pitiful and malignant attacks, though they may be sometimes covert, upon the Democratic party and its principles.

He—We saw the following remarkable fact stated in the Advocate sometime ago, which greatly excited our astonishment. If such really be the case, we think it is one of the most unjust provisions in this dangerous corporation, and should be a warning to every one to keep beyond its power:—

"By the charter of the Massachusetts Life Insurance Company, which has six millions invested in loans on real estate and other securities, the shares of suicides do not descend to their heirs, but escheat to the Company, so that if a father whose whole property was invested therein should take his own life, or be hung or killed in a duel, his children must be left beggars."

Another Riot.—Mr Storrs, an abolitionist, attempted to deliver a lecture at Exeter, N. H., on Wednesday evening last, in the Methodist Chapel, but was prevented by the assemblage of a mob who broke the windows of the church, and then drove the congregation from the house by discharging water upon them from an engine. Mr Storrs and his friends, black and white, were completely drenched. We hope the offenders will be brought to punishment.

You do?

Mr. Editor.—At our last Annual Town Meeting, it was voted to place good and substantial lamp posts, and lamps, and have the same well lighted on Tremont street, from Guy Carleton's Factory to the Boston line, for which $500 was appropriated for the year. It has not been done, and can you tell me if the Selectmen, whose duty it is to carry it into effect, have a right to disregard their instructions? A FRIEND TO IMPROVEMENT.

Roxbury, Aug. 11.

The Atlas thinks it is very vulgar for the trucks to make so much noise in going over the pavements. Among other things in its original essay, it says—"Noise is a vulgar mode of distinction. Barbarians make a noise. Indians, Hottentots and Highlanders are noisy." The Major, we suppose, thought it would be superfluous to specify Whig Editors, as every body knows they belong to the genus "Barbarian"—but are of various species—now "to the poor Indian," and now a "Hottentot."

It—It is frequently asked—"Who gave the Common to Boston?"—But we never heard it answered. Will some one inform us? Strangers think that so great a benefactor should have his generosity commemorated by a monument, or some public sign of gratitude, which would acquire every one who visits these beautiful grounds with his name.

Prices of Stock.—There is no change in stocks since our last, with the exception of the following:—Franklin Bank now stands at 103 a 104; Fulton, 99 a 100; New England, 106 a 107; State, 62 a 63; Traders, 101 a 102; Marine Insurance Company, 103 a 104; Manufacturers a 133; New England, 105 a 131 106; National, 51 a 52.

The New York Herald of Tuesday says, "Yesterday a pretty well cooked dinner, with potatoes and parsley, Yankee pudding and molasses, was laid out at the City Hotel, and eaten up by two dozen fine fellows to the honor and glory of Yankee Hill, the smart representative of Yankee characters."

The Whig papers think it is very difficult to get correct news from North Carolina, about these days, and that Louisiana isn't much better. The Providence Journal says—"Some how or other the whigs have not managed judiciously in Louisiana."

An Anti-Absolution Mob in Cincinnati has destroyed the printing-office where the Philanthropist, an abolition paper, was printed, and also several houses of ill-fame. These riots are most disgraceful to our country.

The Albany Argus—one of the oldest, ablest, and finest Democratic papers in the Union, has come out in an entire new suit.

More Gold.—The Europe, which arrived at New York on Wednesday, from Liverpool, has on board £20,000 in gold consigned to Brown, Brothers & Co.

The Old Song.—The New York Star attributes Rathbun's failure to the removal of the deposits.

The Knickerbocker,—August, 1836.—We have received the Knickerbocker for the present month, containing its usual number of agreeable articles. Among the contributors to this number, we find the names of Mrs. Sedgwick, not Miss Sedgwick, James G. Percival, and W. B. Peabody.

We recommend particularly to the notice of our readers the numbers headed "Organic Remains," "The Poem of the Age," "The Diary of Cotton Mather," and "American Society," No. 2.

The Editor's Table, the writer seems to lament the prevailing taste for Operas; and in his Literary Notices, extracts a passage from "Haditt's Remains," in which the Opera is condemned as "the most artificial of all things." The custom of condemning a thing because it is artificial, is in frequent instances founded on a fallacy. It is difficult for our minds to comprehend wherein music is more artificial than speech; the opera more artificial than tragedy and comedy, or poetry more artificial than prose. It is more easy and more customary among men to communicate their thoughts to one another in plain speech rather than in song—in plain prose rather than in verse. Yet the former, in both cases, is as artificial as the latter. Indeed, music is more natural than speech, since we find many creatures that sing instinctively, while speech is always the effect of instruction. The opera may be made the vehicle of forced and ridiculous sentiments; but no more so than tragedy or comedy. Yet if we condemn the opera, because it is artificial, we ought, in order to preserve consistency, to banish language from the stage and act altogether in pantomime.

If—Mr Dixon intends to do the elegant thing on Saturday evening, at Amory Hall. His advertisement tells a good story.

If—One of the members of the late Lion theatrical company is practising somersets for the next campaign—he turned a couple yesterday with great agility.

There are 400,000 scales or feathers upon the wings of a single silk-worm moth. If any one doubts this, he may count them.

There is a sharp controversy going on in the New York papers about the propriety of the arrest of the "stranger" for bathing in the Frog Pond on our Common.

They begin to sweat in New Orleans—on the 13th and 14th ult. the thermometer stood at 92 in the shade.

The Hon. AMOS KENDALL arrived in Boston on Wednesday, and left on Thursday.

Distressing Accident and Outrage.—As Mrs. Godsoe, the wife of Mr Benjamin Godsoe, residing in Cambridge Street, was crossing Tremont from Beacon street, last evening (Wednesday) about eight o'clock, a man on horseback galloped rapidly by and knocked her down. Before she could rise, a man in a chaise, who was driving furiously, passed over her and broke her collar bone, and otherwise wounded her severely. She was taken up insensible and carried into Smith's apothecary shop, and every exertion made to restore her senses, but without effect. Not being able to tell her name, and no one appearing who knew her, she was conveyed to the Hospital, where she remained until yesterday morning, when she recovered her senses, told her name, and was conveyed home to her family, who had been in the greatest distress all night, not having heard of the accident, and not knowing what had become of her.

The men who caused the accident did not stop to inquire what injury they had done, or to offer her any assistance.—Transcript.

The New Orleans Bulletin, of the 28th ult. contains the following paragraph:—"A letter from a highly respectable source, dated at Matamoras the 29th ult. says, "It is an undoubted fact that this Government (the Mexican) have made, or are making a treaty to engage eight thousand Indians to join them. The Cherokees are already engaged. There are fourteen or fifteen Chiefs of different tribes within a few miles of here, who have daily communications with the officers. The commissioners were this morning turned into the common prison with criminals. It is not improbable we shall be invited to take French leave of the country soon."

The New Orleans Bee of the same date says that letters from the same quarter state "that six American Indian Chiefs of the Cherokee tribe, with forty runners, are in close negotiation with General Urrea at Matamoras. The letters have been sent to Washington, and copies to Gen. Gaines. The letters came via Tampico."

Milledgeville, Aug. 2.

Gen. Jessup has issued an order, we are informed, through the correspondence of a friend, which will very soon bring matters to an issue. The order directs all the Indians to be at the emigrating camp by the 1st of August. All who are not there by that time will be no longer fed by the United States, and will be treated as hostile. The result of this order, we would suppose, will either be to terminate the war at once, or to precipitate the whole tribe, friendly or not, (for all are alike opposed to emigration) into one indiscriminate hostility. Events will soon determine the matter.

Another Outrage.—We give an account, a few days since, of the destruction of the office of the St. Louis Observer, by a mob, in consequence of some strictures contained in that paper upon a certain charge of Judge Lawless to the grand jury of St. Louis. It appears that after this summary breaking up of his establishment, the proprietor of the Observer resolved to move his office to Alton, in that State. The Republican of the 26th ult. states that the material of the late "St. Louis Observer" was treated very unmercifully on its arrival at that place a few days before. "As soon as it was discharged from the boat, the press was broken to pieces, and the type scattered on the wharf."—N. Y. Com. Adv.

The prospect in Virginia is all right. The Richmond Enquirer says "We had both the friends of White and Harrius against us in the Spring, and we beat both wings of the Whig army, with all the aid of the town voices against us, near 6000 majority. We shall beat them again in the Fall from 6 to 10,000. We have not yet met with a Van Buren man, who entertains any doubt of the result. Never was a party more determined, flushed with higher hopes, more sanguine of success. No sign of discomfiture, alarm, panic among them—but all the fear and fluttering are on the other side of the House!"

If—A fatal occurrence took place yesterday afternoon in Marblehead. The foreman of Peabody's Lead Factory was on Peabody's beach picnicing up sea weed, when one John Nourse came up and ordered him off. On his refusing or neglecting to go, Nourse, it is said, drew a pistol at him, which penetrated his breast and caused his death this morning. Nourse was committed to prison this morning.—Lynn Record.

A wagon loaded with hewn granite was crossing the bridge at Kingsley's Mill, Northampton, last week, the bridge gave way and the wagon and granite fell 20 feet to the bottom of the pond. The man and horses, being near the end of the bridge, sprang forward and escaped.

Resuscitation.—A little boy aged 8, after being 15 minutes immersed in the canal at Georgetown, and taken out insensible, was brought to life by the efforts of Dr. Sotherton.

Hackett in Holland.—The American Matthews has gone to Holland, to study, it is said, the character of Rip Van Winkle, in the country of his fader land.

POLICE COURT.

A Child Missed.—An examination of a very singular character took place yesterday forenoon. Mrs. Emily Child, keeper of a boarding house, was charged with committing an assault on a little girl named Mary Martin, and with detaining her and keeping her in false imprisonment, and refusing to disclose where she is secreted. It is to be hoped for the credit of human nature, that the heavy suspicion which is implied in this grave accusation, may prove entirely unfounded, and the child be restored to its mother. The prosecution was conducted by Mr Park, and the defence by Mr Draper. The circumstances, as disclosed by the witnesses, are as follows:—

On Monday afternoon, Mrs Child called at the primary school, kept in Tileston street, by Miss E. B. Parsons, and inquired for the child, whom she charged with having beaten her own daughter on the Saturday previous, and with having stolen two handkerchiefs from her. The child was brought out, but denied the charges, and agreed to go with Mrs Child to see her mother. They went off together, and in a quarter of an hour came back Mrs Child, saying that the girl refused to show where her mother lived. Miss Parsons then sent a little boy with them, and he soon returned, and reported that he had left little Mary in the street, and Miss P. though no more of it.

Mrs Greenough testified, that when she saw Mrs Child and the two children passing through Tileston street, and heard the child screaming, and also heard Mrs Child say to her—"You shall go into the back door." The child replied—"I don't want to go into a back door—isn't there a front door?" Mrs Child said—"You must go in, and you shall stay two or three days, when I will come and see you. You shall go into the back door."

Thomas Crosby testified, that when the officer was conveying Mrs Child to jail, on Wednesday evening, a sailor asked his companion what she had been doing—the latter replied, that she was accused of stealing a child. The first one then said—"I saw her this morning on Charles-ton Bridge, with a little girl dressed up in light clothes."—The child was crying.

Constables Pierce, Ellis, and Holden, and other persons, testified to declarations made by Mrs Child when inquired of respecting the missing child. She told Mr Pierce, that the girl, when she first undertook to show where her mother lived, led her all over the city, and up as far as Myrtle street. Mr Pierce thought this a very strange statement, as she was not absent from the school more than fifteen minutes. She said, that when she went out the second time, she still refused to show where her mother lived, and she then left her at the corner of Moon street.

Mr Ellis testified, that Mrs Child told him, that she left the child in a street, but could not tell what street.

Mr Holden testified, that she said the child ran away from her.

The little boy who accompanied them, said the three went into Prince street; that Mrs Child told the girl that if she did not find the handkerchiefs, and bring them back the next morning, she should be put in jail; that Mrs Child then went home, and the girl told him she would find the girl that had the handkerchiefs, and return them to Mrs Child. He left her going down Prince street. This witness was deemed too young to be sworn. His testimony conflicts with Mrs Child's declaration, that she left the child in Moon street. He was only six years of age.

A girl, aged nine years, testified, that she saw Mary Martin on Tuesday morning, in Hanover street, and spoke to her.

Upon the strength of the testimony of the two last witnesses, Mr Draper claimed the discharge of Mrs Child; but Mr Park obtained a continuance for the purpose of procuring the testimony of the sailor, who said he saw Mrs Child leading a child over Charlestown Bridge. She was accordingly required to recognize in the sum of $200, for her appearance on Monday next, for further examination.

E. D. Dyer's Case.—There were a couple of misprints in our report of this case, yesterday. The distillery he carried on is situated at the South End, instead of the North End. The name of Mr Endicott was incorrectly printed "Charles W." instead of Charles M. Dyer received a college education, and formerly kept a school in Roxbury. He afterwards went into partnership with his brother, in the gold-beating business. When he was arrested, he was on the eve of departure for an adjoining town to bring his wife to his new boarding house in Washington street, where the silver plundered from Mr Endicott was found, in his room. His defence was conducted by John C. Park, Esq.

Latest from Liverpool.—By the packet ship Europe, Capt. Marshall, we have Liverpool dates to July 1st inclusive. The dates from London are no later than before received.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

Liverpool, July 1, 1836.—In prices of Cotton we have no material feature to notice. The market generally is dull, and though a decline of 1-8 a 14, and even 1-2 d has been submitted to during the past fortnight, in the inferior and middling qualities of American kinds, which are so much pressing upon our market. The better assortments from their scarcity are held in proportion with some firmness, though in some instances a partial decline may be quoted in them. Owing to more favorable weather for the growing crops, banded Wheat and Four continue dull.—Tobacco in moderate request.

Some—Some of the whig editors are retailing, as an astonishing affair, a story from nobody knows who, setting forth that the great Daniel Webster once carried a little old man across a stream near Marshpee. If this story is true, it weighs not a feather in comparison to the exploit which Daniel has now undertaken. He now burthened with the whole whig party of Massachusetts, for the purpose of carrying them in a body over the stream of Tippecanoe, to support Gianni Harrison! The Boston Regency degrade Mr. Webster beyond account, in making him their pack-horse for such an ignoble object. Webster is sensible of his humiliating position, and has begged to be released—but the sway of Regency is absolutely despotic over him.—Salem Adv.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

Liverpool, Aug. 2.

Gen. Jessup has issued an order, we are informed, through the correspondence of a friend, which will very soon bring matters to an issue. The order directs all the Indians to be at the emigrating camp by the 1st of August. All who are not there by that time will be no longer fed by the United States, and will be treated as hostile. The result of this order, we would suppose, will either be to terminate the war at once, or to precipitate the whole tribe, friendly or not, (for all are alike opposed to emigration) into one indiscriminate hostility. Events will soon determine the matter.

Another Outrage.—We give an account, a few days since, of the destruction of the office of the St. Louis Observer, by a mob, in consequence of some strictures contained in that paper upon a certain charge of Judge Lawless to the grand jury of St. Louis. It appears that after this summary breaking up of his establishment, the proprietor of the Observer resolved to move his office to Alton, in that State. The Republican of the 26th ult. states that the material of the late "St. Louis Observer" was treated very unmercifully on its arrival at that place a few days before. "As soon as it was discharged from the boat, the press was broken to pieces, and the type scattered on the wharf."—N. Y. Com. Adv.

The prospect in Virginia is all right. The Richmond Enquirer says "We had both the friends of White and Harrius against us in the Spring, and we beat both wings of the Whig army, with all the aid of the town voices against us, near 6000 majority. We shall beat them again in the Fall from 6 to 10,000. We have not yet met with a Van Buren man, who entertains any doubt of the result. Never was a party more determined, flushed with higher hopes, more sanguine of success. No sign of discomfiture, alarm, panic among them—but all the fear and fluttering are on the other side of the House!"

If—A fatal occurrence took place yesterday afternoon in Marblehead. The foreman of Peabody's beach picnicing up sea weed, when one John Nourse came up and ordered him off. On his refusing or neglecting to go, Nourse, it is said, drew a pistol at him, which penetrated his breast and caused his death this morning. Nourse was committed to prison this morning.—Lynn Record.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES—GOLD PURPLE AND GOLD LARNISH.

Mr ROWLEY has discovered a solution, which enables him to cleanse gilt frames, and gilding of all kinds of fly specks, dust, dark spots, by dampness, &c., without the least injury to the gilding. He has also invented a Varnish, which he applies to gilt frames of every description, that secures them from all impurities against all similar articles hitherto manufactured, of a durable and elegant. They are not liable to objection, and are easily cleaned off, without scent, and a disagreeable odor.

Having, by the newly-discovered process, been subjected to the intensest heat, they cannot be melted under the hottest sun. They are warranted to be perfectly water-proof. A bag, prepared in this way, filled with papers, may lie under water for a year, without the slightest moisture of the papers.

As the goods are delivered at and shipped from the manufacturer, without the charge of any commission to the Company, and as by the recent ingenuity, invention, they can be made at less cost, they can be offered at low rates to all orders forwarded to
